Programming for Mass Consumption

Texas Music Educators Convention
Friday, February 13 5:00p.m.
CC217

Creative programming for non-UIL purposes in the high school or community band. This clinic will provide ways for directors to get out of the UIL preparation “rut” and give a concert that will truly entertain any audience. Other topics will include suggestions on which pieces to choose and why and how to acquire feature/guest artists.

Program to Include the following:
